

We are very grateful for the "Do Not Call" list and would be very disappointed if it were discontinued. The phone no longer interrupts us at dinner and does not interfere with family life. Banks do not need to be calling us to solicit our business. Please help continue to protect our privacy law and use your voice to get banks to recind their request or use your voice to get lawmakers not to vote for what the banks want. Thank you.